GENERAL ADVICE WARNING - POLICY RENEWAL

- * As this policy continues with equivalent coverage, a Statement of Advice (SOA) will not be issued
- * The cover is based on the information you have given us
- * If there is any change in your circumstances or cover requirements then please advise the changes required

This advice does not take into account any of your particular objectives, financial situation or needs.

In circumstances where you are renewing an existing policy with the same Insurer or changing to another Insurer, before you make any decision about whether to acquire the policy, you should obtain and read the product disclosure statement for the policy.

DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

You have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably expected to know, is relevant to the Insurers decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty, however, does not require disclosure of matters:

- that diminishes the risk to be assumed by the insurer
- that is of common knowledge
- that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of his business, ought to know
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer

Your duty of disclosure extends to not only answering the questions on the proposal form, but to all matters which are relevant to the risk, and you
