DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

You have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably expected to know, is relevant to the Insurers decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty, however, does not require disclosure of matters:

- that diminishes the risk to be assumed by the insurer
- that is of common knowledge
- that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of his business, ought to know
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer

Your duty of disclosure extends to not only answering the questions on the proposal form, but to all matters which are relevant to the risk, and you must notify the insurer of changes in the risk between the time of you answering the question on the proposal form and the date the contract of insurance is entered into.
